WCA Update 07-16-16

Good News: Maggie Nevens is feeling much better and has been given the OK by her doctor to get back in the swing of things. I will to handle the updates for the time being, so please continue to send your news to me. Thanks, Jana

From Jana Millstone
Attached is the latest WCA membership roster. Please take a look at it and make sure your information is correct. Let me know only if there are changes I need to make in your addresses and phone numbers. Thanks!

From Nancy Rose
Our August 1st lunch Bunch will be at Diane Hill's home. You can see can see the influence of living in Japan within her watercolor paintings. She sometimes uses a batik wax technique with watercolor which creates amazing amazing! It will be fun to see her unique work and hear more about how she does it. Space is limited so move quickly to RSVP to Diane at: 2hillsensei@comcast.net
Address: 494 Circle Wood Drive, Venice 941 735-4870 Driving directions to follow.

Please arrive between 11:00 and 11:30am with you creations to critique. We will end our intimate summer lunch critique by 1:30m. See you there!

Susie Covert received first place in Art Center Manatee's Hot Hot Hot exhibit with her painting "Arches". Susie also won Best Historical Building award for "Painting the DeMarcay Hotel" and shared a People's Choice Award for "Sidewalk to the Roth Cigar Factory" at the Renaissance School of Art Show. The show Preserving Historical Buildings with the Brush had over 40 paintings from several historical site due for demolition in Sarasota. Susie also received an Honorable Mention at Art Center Sarasota for the painting "Enlighten" in the Florida Flare Show.

Dirce Kennedy, painting titled Portrait of Bethanee received Honorable Mention at Art Center Manatee show Hot! Hot! Hot!, June 30th, 2016.

Joan Schnuerch: I have 2 paintings in the current exhibition at the Sarasota Art Center if anyone is interested , and about 10 at the Studio on Pine and Gulf on Anna Maria Island.